

The image shows a standard macOS window title bar. On the left is a small gray circular icon. To its right is the window title "Example Simple Text View" in a bold, black, sans-serif font. On the far right are three standard window control buttons: a gray button with a minus sign, a gray button with a square icon, and a red button with a white "X" icon.

Example Simple Text View

Hello, this is some text.